If you're a nurse, midwife or carer it pays to learn what you can claim at tax time

You can only claim

claim a deduction

for any part of the

to personal use.

expense that relates

the work-related part of expenses. You can't

a deduction for workrelated expenses

- To claim you must have spent the money yourself and weren't reimbursed ■ it must be directly related
 - to earning your income you must have a record to prove it.*

* You can use the ATO app myDeductions tool to keep track of your expenses and receipts throughout the year.

Car expenses

- You can claim a deduction when you: \checkmark
 - drive between separate jobs on the same day eg travelling from your job as a carer to a second job as a musician
 - drive to and from an alternate workplace for the same employer on the same day – eg driving from your usual clinic to another clinic to work for the same employer.
- You generally can't claim the cost of trips between home and work, even if you live a long way from your usual workplace or have to work outside normal business hours – eg public holiday shifts.

There are limited circumstances where you can claim the cost of trips between home and work, such as where you carry bulky tools or equipment for work – eg, a set of baby scales. The cost of these trips is deductible only if:

- your employer requires you to transport the equipment for work
- the equipment was essential to earning your income
- there was no secure area to store the equipment at the work location, and
- the equipment is bulky at least 20kg or cumbersome to transport.

If you claim car expenses, you need to keep a logbook to determine the work-related percentage, or be able to demonstrate to the ATO a reasonable calculation if you use

Clothing expenses

- You can claim a deduction for the cost of buying, hiring, \checkmark mending or cleaning certain uniforms that are unique and distinctive to your job, or protective clothing, eg non-slip nursing shoes or support stockings, that your employer requires you to wear.
- You can't claim a deduction for the cost of buying or cleaning X plain clothing worn at work, even if your employer tells you to wear it, and even if you only wear it for work, eg black pants and a white shirt.

Self-education expenses

- You can claim a deduction for self-education expenses if your course relates directly to your current job, eg wound care course.
- You can't claim a deduction if your study is only related in a general way or is designed to help get you a new job, eg you can't claim the cost of study to enable you to move from being a carer to being a registered nurse.

Other common deductible work-related expenses

=	_	_
_		 _

- As long as the expense relates to your employment, \checkmark you can claim a deduction for the work-related portion of the cost of:
 - calculators
 - union and professional association fees

Australian Government

Australian Taxation Office

the cents per kilometre method to claim.

Phone and internet expenses

You can claim phone and internet usage if your employer \checkmark needs you to use your personal devices for work.

You can only claim the work-related portion of the use of your personal device.

This is a general summary only. For more information, go to ato.gov.au/occupations

- agency commissions and agency fees, and annual practising certificate fees
- technical or professional publications.

